The Official Kick-Off to Boston Pride Week

We'll open up Pride with our traditional Flag Raising at City Hall. We'll be able to watch our mayor, Kim Janey, and Attorney General Maura Healey speak about what Pride means to the City of Boston, and why we're #wickedproud. The national anthem will be sung by the talented Aaron Patterson, which will be followed by the raising of the Progress Flag.

We are so lucky to have Aaron Patterson join us to sing the National Anthem at the Flag Raising. Aaron is a recent graduate of Boston Conservatory's class of 2021, where he obtained his Bachelor's in Fine Arts for Musical Theatre with an Emphasis in Dance. Aaron's time in Boston has been filled with many gratifying theatrical experiences; including the New England Premier of Choir Boy (SpeakEasy Stage), Hair (New Rep Theatre), and Parade (MoonBox) where his portrayal of Jim Conley won him the Elliot Norton Award for Best Musical Performance by an Actor in 2020. Aaron gives all the glory to God, and thanks his family and boyfriend for all of their constant love and support. You can follow Aaron's Instagram page at @aaron_patterson11.

Celtics honor South Ender Marc Davino

Hero Among Us

Submitted by Regan Communications Group

On April 22, Marc Davino was honored on April 22nd, 2021 when the Boston Celtics faced off against the Phoenix Suns.

As a founding member of The Boston Gay Basketball League (BGBL), Marc Davino, who previously served as the league's commissioner, has helped to develop a safe, non-discriminatory space for LGBTQ+ athletes and allies.

The BGBL is a non-profit organization founded in 1994 to create a competitive basketball environment for the Boston LGBTQ+ community and its allies. The BGBL is free from discrimination based on race, religion, creed, gender, national origin, or sexual orientation, with special emphasis on the participation of the gay community.

South End resident Marc Davino

Marc Davino was honored as a Hero Among Us for his role in fostering safe and healthy spaces for the LGBTQ+ community in Boston

Boston Pride announces that it is hosting a virtual forum for the six major candidates in the Boston Mayoral race on June 7th, 2021 at 7pm. The candidate forum will be moderated by Sue O'Connell, political commentator and analyst for Boston Pride's media partner, NBC10 Boston/necn, and a longtime journalist in the LGBTQIA+ community.

The candidates will each be given 15 minutes during a specific time slot to address the audience via this live webinar. The speaking order will be determined at the beginning of the program through a random selection process. Audience members are invited to submit questions during the event. The forum is an opportunity to learn about mayoral candidates' positions on policies and issues facing the LGBTQIA+ and BIPOC community.

The forum is part of the virtual programming presented by Boston Pride during this Pride season. Due to the pandemic, Boston Pride unfortunately had to cancel the in-person Pride Parade and Festival in June.

Honoring Those Living with, and Those We Lost to, the HIV/AIDS Epidemic.

The HIV/AIDS Crisis of the 1980s and the early 90s is a defining event in the history of the LGBTQIA+ community. In the face of wide-spread devastation, confusion, and fear, queer people banded together in solidarity to care for the sick and to demand the attention and action of the Government.

The virtual park lighting ceremony is meant to commemorate departed friends, family and coworkers and to increase awareness of the HIV/AIDS epidemic, which is still affecting the community today.

A signature event of Boston Pride Week, Pride Lights will feature remarks from Mayor Kim Janey, Chief of Health & Human Services Marty Martinez, and a poem reading from Philip Robinson. Virtual performances provided by the Boston Gay Men's Chorus, with others to be announced.

Pride Lights is a collaboration of the City of Boston, Boston Pride and the Blackstone / Franklin Square Neighborhood Association.

Updates in 10 total languages can additionally be accessed through boston.gov/coronavirus#multilingual-help. Each language has its own page and hosts multilingual print materials distributed citywide.

HOMELESS SERVICES AND HOSPITAL CAPACITY

On April 2nd, Mayor Walsh announced that construction begins at the Boston Convention and Exhibition Center to add 500 beds for treating homeless adults who have tested positive for COVID-19 and need care, but do not require full hospitalization.

The City has released a Request for Proposals to secure a partner organization to operate the facility. If necessary, the Convention Center beds will be opened up for hospitals to use for sub-acute COVID patients in the general population.

These 500 beds will bring Boston's total number of new beds for homeless individuals to over 1,000. This includes Boston Medical Center's Newton Pavilion facility, which the City and State are working to re-purpose as a medical facility for homeless residents affected by the coronavirus.

SMALL BUSINESS SUPPORT

On April 2nd, Mayor Walsh announced two new resources that will help small businesses during the public health crisis.

The City of Boston has created a Small Business Relief Fund. Drawing on a combination of City, federal, and private industry contributions, it establishes $2 million in grant funding—capable of providing a lifeline to hundreds of local businesses at risk of shutting down permanently due to the crisis. It will be administered as a streamlined version of the City's Small Business Financing program. Small businesses can begin applying on Monday, April 6.

Suspect in Custody, Officers Recover Loaded Firearm

BPD News

At about 3:50 AM on Saturday May 29, 2021, officers assigned to District D-4 (South End) made an onsite firearm arrest after responding to a call in the area of 725 Albany Street in Boston. On arrival, officers arrested Saquawana Anderson, 28, of Killeen, TX, after recovering a loaded 9mm Taurus handgun during an investigation inside the premises.

Gunfire on Shawmut leaves two cars, one occupied, with bullet holes

Two Suspects in Custody , Officers Recover Loaded Firearm, Drugs, Cash

BPD News

At about 8:45 AM on Wednesday May 19, 2021, officers assigned to the District C-6 (South Boston) and BPD Citywide Drug Control Units conducted an investigation which resulted in the arrests of two people from Swansee on firearm and drug related charges in the area of Massachusetts Avenue and Melnea Cass Boulevard in Boston. As a result, the officers were able to safely recover a loaded 9mm handgun, several loose rounds of ammunition, 25 grams of crack cocaine, 22 grams of fentanyl and an undisclosed amount of U.S. Currency.

Both suspects will appear in South Boston District Court on charges of Unlawful Possession of a Firearm, Unlawful Possession of Ammunition and Trafficking Class A and B Drugs.

66-Year-Old Arrested Following Non-Fatal Stabbing near the Southampton Street Shelter

BPD News

At about 6:08 PM on Monday May 17, 2021, officers assigned to District C-6 (South Boston) and members of the Citywide Bicycle Unit responded to a call for a person stabbed in the area of 112 Southampton Street in Boston after an officer performing a paid detail at the shelter located an adult male victim on Atkinson Street. The victim was transported to a local area hospital for treatment of injuries which were considered to be non-life-threatening in nature. Although officers observed several people loitering about the area of the scene, they did not assist the officers with a description of the suspect or any account of what had just occurred. District detectives were eventually able to provide officers with a description of the suspect, a 66 year-old female, who was last seen operating a motorized scooter. Investigators later learned that the suspect had stabbed the victim before stealing an undisclosed amount of cash before fleeing the area.

At about 8:20 PM, C-6 officers who were committed to directed patrol around the shelter, observed the suspect as she returned to the area and were able to place her in custody without incident. The suspect will appear in Roxbury District Court on charges of Assault and Battery by Means of a Dangerous Weapon and Armed Robbery.
