FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

ATLANTA PRIDE COMMITTEE ANNOUNCES ENTERTAINMENT LINEUP FOR 2023 ATLANTA PRIDE FESTIVAL

Icona Pop, Saucy Santana and G Flip Will Show Up & Show Out on The Coca-Cola Main Stage on Saturday, October 14

Entertainment Continues with Starlight Cabaret on Sunday, October 15

Atlanta (September 7, 2023) — The Atlanta Pride Committee (APC) announces the highly anticipated lineup of entertainment for both stages at this year’s Atlanta Pride Festival on Saturday, October 14 and Sunday, October 15. Swedish pop duo Icona Pop will headline the Coca-Cola Main Stage on Saturday, along with rapper Saucy Santana and Australian singer-songwriter G Flip. And on Sunday, the Starlight Cabaret will close out the weekend with the largest outdoor drag show in the country.

“The entertainment portion of the Festival is always a huge draw,” said Chris McCain, executive director of APC. “We’re excited to welcome the community for what is sure to be a high-energy experience. This year, we have something for every fan.”

The entertainment kicks off on the Mercedes-Benz USA Stage on Saturday, October 14 at 12 p.m. with an eclectic mix of local artists and performers; entertainment on the Coca-Cola Main Stage starts at 2 p.m.

The entertainment news comes on the heels of APC’s recent announcement of this year’s grand marshals.

About the Atlanta Pride Committee

The Atlanta Pride Committee is Georgia's oldest nonprofit organization serving the LGBTQ+ community in metro Atlanta and across the South.
