

Coalition of Civic and Business Latino Leaders in Boston Call for Mayoral Candidates to Make Commitments on Latino Representation

LETTER TO ALL CANDIDATES

June 14, 2021

Dear Candidate:

Last Monday, Alex Oliver-Dávila resigned as the Chair of the Boston Public School Committee after private text messages between her and Dr. Lorna Rivera were leaked to the press. Alex and Lorna are facing personal attacks, threats and ongoing defamation. We believe that this leak was an attempt by status quo supporters to diminish the important work Alex and Lorna have done on the School Committee – and in particular their fight to ensure equitable access and opportunities for Black and Latino students, as well as English Language Learners. This course of events also underscores the painful historical context of racism in our City.

For more than twenty-years, Alex has worked tirelessly to ensure that Boston's Latinx and BIPOC young people are receiving the same educational opportunities as their peers in Boston Public Schools. Her impact includes: organizing youth to advocate for citywide bans on single use plastic bags and tobacco advertisements in neighborhood groceries and organizing relief for hundreds of families after Hurricane Maria. And, as School Committee Chair, she ensured the adoption of MassCore standards; changes in attendance, promotion and grading policies that aid in student retention; and the provision of the interpretation of School Committee meetings into nine major languages including ASL – the only City department to do so.

As the Director of the Mauricio Gastón Institute and an Associate Professor of Women's, Gender, and Sexuality Studies at UMASS Boston, Lorna's calling as an educator and advocate goes beyond university classrooms and into the community. As an award-winning writer of books, articles, research, and publications, she has consistently brought issues of literacy, poverty, and inequity to the forefront. Her commitment to supporting educational access for Latinx young people has been the foundation of her volunteer activities, including her service in the School Committee.

While Alex and Lorna are receiving widespread support from the at-large community for their courage in the work that they have done at the School Committee, we are extremely concerned that their departure has resulted in a huge void of Latino voice and representation in the School Committee, especially at a time when stakes are so high around the vote on the permanent changes to the exam schools admission policy. We also are alarmed

2021 South End Summer Arts Preview

BY MICHELE D. MANISCALCO

The South End News is especially pleased to present the annual Summer Arts Preview this year, as the city reawakens from its social hibernation with the loosening of pandemic restrictions.

Due to the significant lead time required to book touring artists, organize concessions and so on, some events such as the Tito Puente Latin Music Series, Festival Betances, and Fête de La Musique will take place on-line this year, while and the Worcester Square Area Neighborhood Association's (WSANA) Music in the Square series will return in their usual outdoor settings.

The Boston Parks and Recreation Department (BPRD) is still in the process of planning outdoor activities for the South End and other neighborhoods as well.

Liz Sullivan, director of external affairs and marketing for BPRD, wrote, "We started planning a full summer of events and booking art-about the leak of these texts to the media and see it as a breach of trust and communication protocols by someone within City government. Finally, we are worried about the environment of harassment that permeates the School Committee deliberations.

Given that 20% of Boston residents, and 42% of Boston Public Schools students are Latino, we are writing to request a meeting with you and members of the Latino community in the next week to address the following concerns:

- Latino representation in Cabinet positions, Boards and Commissions in city government under your administration
- Latino equity in Boston Public Schools and School Committee
- Economic opportunities for the Latino community

We, the undersigned, want you to acknowledge the racial context underlying this course of events, which attempt to perpetuate the system inequities that have long plagued Boston Public Schools. We ask for a meeting with you to hear about your proposals to address our concerns. We will reach out to your office to schedule said meeting.

LETTER TO ACTING MAYOR KIM JANEY

June 14, 2021

Dear Acting Mayor Kim Janey:

Last Monday, Alex Oliver-Dávila resigned as the Chair of the Boston Public School Committee after private text messages between her and Dr. Lorna Rivera were leaked to the press. Alex and Lorna are facing personal attacks, threats and ongoing defamation. We believe that this leak was an attempt by status quo supporters to diminish the important work Alex and Lorna have done on the School Committee – and in particular their fight to ensure equitable access and opportunities for Black and Latino students, as well as English Language Learners. We also are alarmed about the leak of these texts to the media and see it as a breach of trust and communication protocols by someone within City government. Finally, we are worried about the environment of harassment that permeates the School Committee deliberations.

Given that 20% of Boston residents, and 42% of Boston Public Schools student are Latino, and the concerns stated above, we are writing to ask that you do the following:

1. Appoint two equity-focused Latino leaders to the School Committee immediately, as we strongly believe that our voice and representation must be present before a vote on the exam schools admission policy can take place;
2. Conduct a full investigation and public report into how these text messages were leaked, as whoever within City government did this presents an on-going risk and must be identified and terminated. The investigation should make public any involvement of any and all organizations in the dissemination of said leaked messages; and
3. Adopt immediate governance measures that address racist behaviors and accountability procedures for the School Committee, as well as safety and security supports, so that School Committee members can work in an environment that is free from harassment.

We, the undersigned, appreciate that you have acknowledged the racial context underlying this course of events and your commitment to appoint Latinos to the School Committee. We ask for a meeting with you to hear about your plan to address our requests. We will reach out to your office to schedule said meeting.

ists as soon as the governor shared the reopening news. The schedule is being firmed up now." Sullivan referred readers to boston.gov/parks for developing details on city-sponsored fitness, entertainment and other activities.

This Summer Preview offers all the details that could be confirmed at press time and will be followed with a Summer Arts Guide with further information on South End outdoor entertainment in an upcoming issue.

Salsa with MetaMovements, sponsored by BPRD, kicked off its season on Tuesday, June 8 from 6:00-7:00 PM at O'Day Playground, and will continue through Tuesday, September 28. The classes are free and registration is not required. Visit <https://www.boston.gov/calendar/parks-fitness-salsa-metamovements>.

The South End News contacted the Friends of Titus Sparrow Park to inquire about their popular Wednesday night summer concerts and the Tuesday morning children's concerts, but did not receive a response by press time.

The Community Music Center of Boston again will celebrate the summer solstice when Fête de la Musique returns on-line on Saturday, June 26 from 3:00-5:00 PM with a diverse lineup of music including the Javier Rosario Trio. As usual, this event is free and all ages, but registration is required at https://www.eventbrite.com/e/fetehome-2021-tickets-157685209707?fbclid=IwAR0uWmtWtW_mhmAaQeY6A-plUsKUhiQhd4zmDRB0lpeyvamWXXqC4UOTyJl. For additional details on the concert, please visit <https://www.facebook.com/communitymusiccenter>.

Festival Betances returns en casa (at home) for one night only, July 17 at 7:00 PM, with the theme, "Latinos Siempre Unidos" (Latinos always together) and a virtual concert with an exciting lineup. Opener Yuba Iré describes its style as "rumba criollizada," rooted in traditional rumba with unique infusions of bomba, plena and Afro-Cuban rhythms.

The headliner is merengue star, Oscar "Oscarito El Más Loco" Serrano, who started out with Grupo Mania and is now a merengue star in his own right. As always, Festival Betances is free and for all ages, and can be streamed at IBA's Youtube channel, <https://www.youtube.com/user/IBAboston>, or at the Festival's Facebook page, <https://www.facebook.com/festivalbetances>.

The Tito Puente Latin Music Series is back in virtual form on two Thursdays, July 22 and July 29 at 7:00 PM, sponsored by IBA, Berklee College of Music and the Boston Parks and Recreation Department. On July 22, Puerto Rican singer/songwriter Abraham Dorta entertains with sweet melodies, poetic lyrics and bohemian guitar accompaniment.

On July 29, Puerto Rican singer Amor De Jesús presents a variety of styles from the dance rhythms of salsa, bomba and plena to nueva trova, a socially conscious musical movement dating from the Cuban revolution. Both concerts will stream live on Facebook, Instagram and Youtube. See <https://ibaboston.org/events/tito-puente-latin-music-series> for further information.

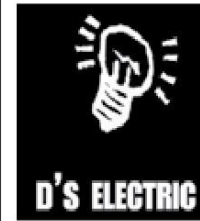

Plans are in the works at the South End Branch Library to bring back the Concerts at Library Park this summer, but details were not available at press time. More information will be forthcoming in the South End News.

WSANA plans to reprise its Music in the Square series this season but had no firm details to report at press time. Organizer Craig Hughes said via e-mail, "WSANA is wrapping up its planning for summer 'Music in the Square' concert series. Expect two or three concerts on Thursday evenings to be announced on our website at www.worcestersquare.org and on Facebook at facebook.com/worcestersquare in the next two weeks."

That's all for now, but look for additional information on outdoor arts and activities in the South End News. Enjoy!

Where will you live until you can call this 'Home' again? Your association policy won't cover your additional living expenses. Condo owners NEED Personal Condominium Insurance for that. Aside from replacing your personal property, it will help you with rent, while you're still paying your mortgage. Contact us.

GOOD SHOWS PRIDE

Every year we look forward to marching with you. And while last year there was no parade, there was still much pride, and our commitment to standing with the LGBTQIA+ community marched on. Let's continue that march together, as we all stand for equity, give voice to the cause, and make 2021 another year to truly celebrate.
